

Northern Utah Triathletes
Conflicts of interest agreement
Committee Approved Dec. 19, 2009

Mission Statement:

The Northern Utah Triathletes mission is to join mutli-sport athletes and runners together in a social, informative, and fun environment to promote learning and growth in the sport. Beginner, intermediate, elite amateur/professional levels are welcomed and involvement is encouraged to help each individual reach his or her goals. Quality health education is promoted through regular practices, clinics, lectures and group challenges.

Conflict of interest agreement:

Conflict of Interest Agreement and Signature

The leaders and members of the Northern Utah Triathletes and South Davis Road Runners and/or racing teams (hereafter "group") owe a duty of loyalty to the group and it's owner and presenting sponsor, which requires that in participating in the group they act, not in their personal interests or in the interests of others, but rather solely in the interests of the group and it's mission. They agree not to use their positions, information they have about the group in a manner that allows them to secure pecuniary benefit for themselves or their relatives. The conduct of personal business is prohibited. Personal trainers, coaches, nutritionists and other such health professionals involved must obtain prior consent with the group owner to solicit business or distribute information including, but not limited to group activities and functions. Dual interests and partnerships are honored when prior arrangement is made with full disclosure. Group contact lists should only be used for group and not personal business purposes or to be distributed or sold to third parties. Any violation of this agreement is grounds for immediate membership termination and exclusion from the club at the owner's sole discretion. All membership benefits and group discounts will be immediately forfeited. I further understand that Sunday group activities are not supported and should not be encouraged.

I have read and understand the Conflict of Interest Agreement and agree to the terms outlined and agree to be bound by it. I will promptly inform the owner of the group of any material change that develops in the in the foregoing application that might present a conflict of interest.
